

Ericksonian Program

DISCOVER
How hypnosis is all part of everyday life, for example how the moguls of advertising are using it all the time. We also offer you a complete learning experience throughout your training program, you will be exposed to a mixture of presentation and experiential exercises, design to promote exactly the right balance of conscious and unconscious learning.

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN

- Learn how the unconscious mind really works-allowing you to fully understanding why some important messages get through and others don't
- Enabling direct commands to be used in business, meeting, and for healthy negotiating
- How do some people seem to be resourceful at will, whilst others are always at the effect of their feelings?
- What would it be like to learn how to take control of your feelings when you need to?
- Get out of procrastination and become motivated
- Self therapy
- Relaxations
- To take control and direct conversations more effectively
